Morris Heritage Walking Trails

The River Walk Trail section of the Morris Heritage Walking Trails has been gifted by the dedicated work of Rick Remillard who upkeeps all the trails along the Red River area from Scratching River Park to the Forks in Morris, then continues west along the Morris River to the Trestle bridge. The River Walk is maintained in all seasons as weather and conditions permit.

Public Works Department

With the significant amount of snow fall in February; please remember to remove all roll-away bins as soon as possible once emptied so Public Works can continue to safely remove snow.

Follow the Town of Morris Public Works Dept on Facebook and Instagram to find out more about the upcoming Green Team positions for summer staff.

Garbage and recycling bins are available at the Public Works shop on Hwy 23 West. Please separate and dispose of your items properly. Mattresses, couches, and large household items do NOT belong in the bins.

Morris Area Recreation

As Manitoba Health restrictions relax, in-person recreation programming is returning. Morris Area Recreation will continue to follow all current health restrictions. Follow Morris Area Recreation on social media and sign up for email and text alerts through www.townofmorris.ca to stay up to date about recreation in your community.
